

Message from Monmouth County Clerk Christine Giordano Hanlon, Esq.

Dear Residents and Customers,

I want to take a moment to connect with you directly as the Coronavirus (COVID-19) continues to impact Monmouth County and our local communities. As this unprecedented situation unfolds, Monmouth County has made some adjustments in how we serve you:

In an abundance of caution to protect and keep Monmouth County residents and County employees safe from the spread of COVID-19, all Monmouth County Clerk's Offices will be closed to the public, with limited exceptions, now through Sunday, March 22, 2020. We apologize for any inconvenience this temporary closure may cause.

Although our offices may be closed to the public, please know that our staff is committed to serving Monmouth County and will be available by phone and email during regular business hours. We ask that you review the detailed information below about our temporary closure and how it will affect our specific services. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact our offices.

As we monitor this fluid situation, we will do our best to keep everyone informed of any news and updates. We also encourage you to follow the Monmouth County Clerk's Office on Facebook and Twitter.

We are privileged to serve the residents and customers of Monmouth County and look forward to seeing you soon.
